

FALL INTO SAVINGS WITH HOPEWELL RESIDENTIAL

Hopewell Residential, the official builder of “one visit and you’ll just know”, invites you to fall for their amazing home styles and affordable prices this autumn.

“We believe in building the spaces and places where people love to live,” says marketing manager, Nicole McLaws. “We offer attainable design for the modern family, uncompromising quality, refreshing distinctiveness and a combination of features rarely available elsewhere”.

Hopewell caters to a wide range of home buyers, and their affordability and unparalleled style make home building with Hopewell Residential an attractive option. Add low interest rates, value-added features and functional floorplans, and you’ve found amazing new home living that’s well within reach.

And, McLaws adds, right now homebuyers can really save with Hopewell’s “Fall into Savings” promotion, on until Oct. 31.

“People are going to love our amazing upgrades and money-saving perks, combined with Hopewell’s unmatched style and amazing floorplans,” she says. “We want our homeowners to be able to create the home that is perfect for them, and this is their opportunity to select free upgrades that suit their family and lifestyle.”

With a wide variety of price points and product types available, including Secord Chalet townhomes in the Hopewell community of Secord; duplexes in south Edmonton’s Cavanagh; laned homes available in McConachie, Vita at Crystallina Nera, Hawks Ridge, Secord and Cavanagh; and front-attached garage homes ready to build in McConachie, Hawks Ridge and Secord, there is a Hopewell home for every budget, family and lifestyle.

Ready to make your move? Hopewell can help with that as well. From connecting you with financial resources, to offering an experienced realtor partner that can sell your current home, homebuyers are supported every step of the way.
